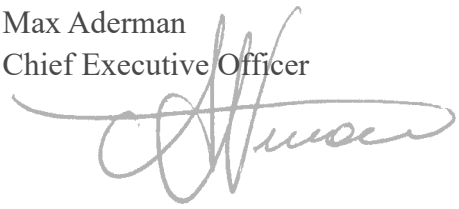
Executive Risk System is a world leader in Emergency response, Crisis & Emergency management and Security.

Our Training & Recruiting division provides direct access to former members of various International Special Forces. Backed by a strong network of partners and led by an elite team from Defense Officers, Law Enforcement and Emergency Service.

Headquartered in EU our experts operate 24/7 mitigating risks complex international locations, remote areas and urban centers. Our industry reach is broad working across Government, Oil & Gas , Mining e Resources, Property & Infrastructure, civil Construction and Healthcare.

Executive Risk System (E.R.S.) Ltd. was born from a branch of the renowned Australian Security Company: Executive Risk Solution, which in 2019 arrives with a new office in West Africa, carrying out Risk Management activity; Training; Consulting and Security throughout the African continent, for international and local investors, government offices and law enforcement agencies. Executive Risk System operating in Africa, becomes an Independent Company in 2020, operating in the same sectors in 4 continents: EU, Africa, Asia, North and South America.

Our People : ERS is committed to promoting a culture of diversity and inclusion. We employ people around the world, where possible, recruit local populations and help their socioeconomic and cultural context. Made up of an elite team of military special forces, special services and emergency law enforcement. We recruit only the best, and our development programs are aimed at nurturing our exceptional caliber of talent and equipping them with the tools they need to be truly exceptional. Our staff has specialized skills beyond industry standards.


Max Aderman
Chief Executive Officer